Session in 12 Sacred Steps

New York's Divine Channel™ TV Show Host, Success Coach, Business Consultant, Psychic Medium, NLP Hypnotist, Motivational Speaker & CEO of The Academy of Divine Rich CEO™, Camille Conti Agency, and Camille Conti Cosmetics™ PRESENTS...

Perform a Professional Divine Channel, Psychic Medium, Reading & Healing Session in 12 Sacred Steps

Pre Setup: Use your "Spiritual Kit" notes to prepare your space and cleanse and clear the energy to prepare your reading & healing for yourself or someone else.

Note: The writing in blue with quotes is the script to read out loud to yourself or your client if you are performing a session for someone other than yourself.

Ensure they have signed a consent form to permit you to perform the reading and healing before you do the session! Say, "If you hope to connect with a loved one on the other side who has passed away, please let me know now. I will request from the divine that this be part of your session. We may be able to do this for you depending on what the divine decides during this session for the highest and greatest good of all parties involved. I need your permission to do your reading & healing and the approval from the higher selves of all the other people or energies, whether they are alive or already transitioned (passed) to the other side.

Thank you, divine, for bringing in the information in order of priority of importance for (Name's) current life right now and his/her/their heart and soul's intentions, soul missions, and their goals and dreams." Make this the default setting for all your readings and healings always to be accurate, efficient, productive, meaningful, and transformative.

- 1.) Say, "Can I start with a Prayer and a Blessing for you?" After they permit you, I will say A Special Divine Channelled Prayer that will empower your session to be successful. You can also share your prayers either out loud or quietly in your head to feel that your personal beliefs are incorporated and respected and you feel comfortable. Then begin with the sacred prayer & blessing: "Father, Mother, Creator God, and or (Holy Spirit, Mother Mary & Jesus) - Thank you for blessing (Name) abundantly now and every day moving forward in their lives. Thank you for clearing out any energy that is not serving them for their highest and greatest good and for bringing in all the energy, miracles, blessings, and divine intelligence downloads that will help support them on their journey of life, for always being divinely guided, successful, healthy, protected, peaceful and happy. Thank you for clearing up anything about their health, joy, and happiness while placing the proper energy in their heart, mind, and soul that will lead them to achieve their goals and dreams for the highest and greatest good of all parties involved. I now call in Archangel Michael, Raphael, Gabriel, and Uriel to support this session and support (Name) throughout this whole session and do any clearing, healing, or transformation necessary during our time together and for 24 hours after. And so it is!! Thank you and thank you and thank you. Amen and amen and amen.”

- 2.) Say, *“Are you willing to clear or complete any contracts or vows you may or may not have with me, our two souls, from this or any other lifetime? We do this because it will open the doors to complete success with all the work we do together by removing obstacles. This is highly recommended. After they say yes, say: Please state your full name out loud and any names that you’ve ever gone by and then your birthday. Now, please repeat after me...

I now complete or release any contracts or vows that I have with myself or anyone else, known or unknown to me or them, that could be in the way of me living my very best life. I do this now with love and gratitude. Amen and amen and amen and thank you and thank you and thank you.”

- 3.) “Please give your spiritual counsel, which is all of divine, your guardian angels and guides, and ancestors in heaven permission to speak with mine to receive the appropriate information for your highest and greatest good and the intentions of your heart and their soul. If you feel comfortable with this, please say, I give my permission now. (This is where you can quietly, in your head, request permission from another person’s higher self to be able to communicate with their higher self - over soul for yourself or on behalf of someone else needing to share with them, and not being able to do it on a physical level in human to human form for whatever reason.)
- 4.) Now, quietly in your head or out loud, set your intentions of what they would like to receive out of the reading and then after the reading as a result.
- 5.) Now write down your top 5 to 15 goals on a piece of paper that are most important to you. These are the things that you want to shift, change or upgrade about your life. Meanwhile, I will be doing the automatic writing for your reading.
- 6.) ((Write down notes on paper of the information coming through from their reading. It usually takes one or two minutes for you to feel like the messages are coming to you after they give their counsel permission to talk with your counsel. You can also let them have a copy of the notes if they would like and or let them record the reading if they would like to on their phone.)))
- 7.) Once they’re done doing the 5 to 15 goals, say, “Place your hands on their lap in an open palm upward facing position. Would you like to receive a clearing and balancing of your energy? Dear divine counsel, thank you for working with (Name) to release energy that’s not supportive and bring in the energy that will help (Name). I will facilitate you as the conduit, the messenger for the divine. (You can use this energy clearing and healing technique with the divine for your client while you are doing the reading and healing for them and receiving the automatic writing, or while you’re doing the homework preparation with them at the end, whenever it feels most appropriate and natural to offer it to them,)

- 8.) Place your hands down now. I am going to give you the messages first that came through for you and explain them to you. You can ask any questions at the end because likely the answers to the questions will already have come through during the reading. (((Then you can start giving them the messages or the intuition that's coming through for you... it might be a feeling that you have, an all-knowing that you have, it may be what you're hearing, and it may be what you see in a video, but it may not be all of that. It just may be one of those channels or two or three, or four. Whatever way it's coming through is perfectly fine. It qualifies as a divine channel psychic medium reading regardless of the channel it's coming through. You're not required to you see, feel, hear, and know all at the same time. You will go to that place if you continue practicing this protocol. However, you may start with one or two of them and then continue to grow gradually if you're doing them regularly.)))
- 9.) (((Then, after you give them the information, whether you read what you wrote down or whether you just state was coming through for them, you can answer whatever questions that they have from the same place that you were receiving the other information.))) Say, "What questions do you have?" (((And then wait to sense the response that is being given to them and give it to them.)))
- 10.) Say, "Do you feel complete?" (((And they may want to add another 15 or 30 minutes on and increase their reading which you can do if you have time and they have to pay additional money for that.)))
- 11.) Then say, "Let's look over your 5 to 15 items that are on their dreams and goals list. I can give you a Free 15-minute divine channel consultation for any healing programs or courses that are recommended and or homework that would benefit you on your journey to achieving your goals and dreams. Would you like any recommended homework or programs that will support you in changing your life the way you experience it?"

(((So this free mini divine channel consultation is for you to ask Divine for a prescription of what programming they can do with you that will help them achieve their goals.)))

Use the mini workbooks to give homework on Perfectionism, Boundaries, Anger, Anger Management, etc. Whatever applies to what they need.

Use the 8-step, forgiving process, the South of prayer, and the daily maintenance for empathic individuals. To complete a healing

- 12.) At the closing of the reading & healing, say, "We thank the divine and all of our spiritual counsels for assisting us today!" Then go ahead and use your holy water & oil and say, "I now cleanse and clear any and all energies that are not yours and are no longer serving you for your highest and greatest good. Cut and dissolve all ties, chords, and connections with all people, places, things, and events that have voluntarily or involuntarily connected into you, or you connected into them on all levels, planes, and dimensions and in all moments of time, past, present, and future. Amen, Amen, Amen, and Thank You, Thank You, and Thank You!"

"Please give yourself tender loving care moving forward with an attitude of gratitude. Release judgment of yourself and step into a place of unconditional love, forgiveness, compassion, and radical self-acceptance. Be kind and gentle, and give yourself a fresh start, to begin with a fresh start. If you are a perfectionist, please cut yourself some slack. We make mistakes because we needed to learn a lesson to position ourselves to achieve our next goals and dreams. All is in divine order and timing. God is conspiring in your favor. Divine intervention and orchestration are happening right now on your behalf. Trust and move forward on faith. Pray daily like it's up to God, and work every day like it's up to you. Drink lots of water and get extra sleep over the next 72 hours to integrate this upgrade you have received today."

1.) How were you feeling before working with Camille about life, your self love, your personal success and your career/business? Please describe where you were at in your life collectively?

-Before working with Camille, I was feeling overwhelmed with stress, worry and doubt. I noticed that my career/business was at a plateau and it felt like my life was starting to fall apart because my doubts were getting the best of me.

2.) How did you feel during your program and afterwards? What has evolved since finishing the program? What breakthroughs and shifts have you experienced?

-During the program, I felt calm and safe with Camille. I have less doubt now, and I feel confident about my life, my purpose, and my business. I experienced a shift in my mindset around how it is okay to take time for myself, and that it is okay that connecting to the Universe is my #1 priority. Before working with Camille I think these things were holding me back, and now that I've released them I feel free.

3.) How has your relationship with divine (source) changed?

-My relationship with Source has deepened since working with Camille. I have given myself permission to spend more time on my spiritual development and it is helping me in so many ways and opening new portals of love and connections to old friends.

4.) How has your relationship with yourself, your higher self (over soul), and your spiritual counsel shifted?

-My relationship with myself and my higher self has improved, I am spending more time and energy on me and it feels absolutely divine! After working with Camille, I think the energy shift that happened within me created a ripple effect and I started attracting amazing people into my life. My spiritual counsel has been speaking to me a lot more through these friends and through my own spiritual practices.

5.) What were your most important epiphany & conscious awareness or awakening moments for you?

-The most important epiphany that I experienced while working with Camille was that my angels (counsel) are surrounding me and that I'm on the right track.

6.) What was Camille like to work with? How is she different from other coaches, healers and mentors you've worked with previously?

-Camille is very strong in her energy which makes me feel safe. She is funny and makes me smile which is soooo nice, cause sometimes these types of things can be kind of intense. When

I worked with Camille, I felt my 3rd eye literally glowing for like an hour afterwards. Her words are so potent and so powerful, I can feel it deeply in my body and soul.
